

Announcement of a new publication:

We are very pleased to announce that the Journal of TRIZ in Engineering Design has begun publication. This is an academic journal, with a classical peer review system. It is available on-line at

<http://www.togopressllc.com/trizined/ojs/contents/2005v1n1.html>

TRIZ Journal author Madara Ogot, from the faculty of the Pennsylvania State University is the Editor, and TRIZ Journal co-editor Michael Slocum and frequent author Gaetano Cascini are members of the board.

We hope that the academic engineering community will benefit from having an academic journal, and we will continue to bring items of general interest from the academic audience to the TRIZ Journal audience.
